

THE BRITISH PLAYERS
MEMBERSHIP FORM
2019-2020

The BRITISH PLAYERS (formerly the British Embassy Players), formed in 1964 by John Palmer and a small group of British Embassy staff, now has over 200 members drawn from the Embassy staff, local British and Commonwealth subjects, and Americans. The Players perform three productions each season, starting in the fall and ending in early summer. All productions are by British playwrights, are British in content or translated from their original language by a British writer, or are set in Britain; and include pantomimes, mysteries, dramas, farces, and traditional music halls. The Players have also performed one-night shows at nursing homes, clubs, and local organizations to raise money for charities. Over the years, the Players have made substantial direct donations to both British and American charities.

Additionally, the Players hold many social events. The Players provide a connection between the British and the American communities. One facet of the Group's involvement in the Washington community is sponsorship of the Ruby Griffith Award Competition, with awards given for all-around production excellence to amateur theatre groups in the area. The competition, named for an early Players' mentor, takes place annually and attracts entries from many theatre groups in the metropolitan area.

Lastly, membership benefits include access to the monthly newsletter, a copy of our yearly directory, discounted entrance fees to Players-hosted social events, one complimentary ticket to a non-Music Hall show during the season in which you join, and the option to become a Ruby Griffith Awards adjudicator.
